The Abbeys of the Scottish Borders

This Scottish Borders area sits south of Edinburgh & The Lothians and to the north east of Dumfries & Galloway. This is an area of magnificent natural beauty and historical importance. Four remarkable abbeys are located in the Scottish Borders. These are, Melrose Abbey, Dryburgh Abbey, Jedburgh Abbey and Kelso Abbey.

Melrose Abbey is probably the most famous Abbey ruin in Scotland. The abbey was founded in 1136 by David I and was largely destroyed in 1385 by Richard II's English army. You can visit the Chapter House at Melrose Abbey, where the heart of King Robert the Bruce is thought to be buried.

Instead of visiting all four of these Abbeys, this tour gives you the option of visiting other locations, including, Floors Castle, Mellerstain House, Rosslyn Chapel (Da Vinci Code), or the Glenkinchie Whisky Distillery.

Visit our website today to see our current range of tours and time limited offers.

All of our tours can be adapted in terms of destination or pace to ensure that you get the most from your trip.

If you can't see the tour that you really want, then why not tell us what your ideal tour looks like. From lochs to castles, events to tourist attractions, golf courses to racing tracks, the possibilities are only limited by your imagination. So let us turn your dreams into a reality.
