Forth Bridges, Fife and St. Andrews

Let us take you to the Kingdom of Fife. As you cross the Forth Road bridge look out for the world famous Forth Rail Bridge which opened in 1890.

This tour gives you time to wander around Falkland Palace, once used as the country residence of the Stuart monarchs, and a favourite place of Mary Queen of Scots. Take time to view the oldest real (or royal) tennis court in Britain and the gardens which were designed by Percy Cane.

Your next stop will be the town of known the world over as the home of golf, but it could also be described as a coastal resort, an old town or a University town. On leaving St. Andrews you will enjoy a tour of the fishing villages of the East Neuk of Fife before returning to Edinburgh.
