Your first stop on this amazing trip will be at Callander. This town has many links with Rob Roy. This famous Scottish folk hero and outlaw is often referred to as the Scottish Robin Hood.

On leaving Callander you will head towards Glen Etive which sits in the Highlands of Scotland. At the north end of Glen Etive lie the two mountains known as the "Herdsman of Etive". Film fans may be aware that Glen Etive featured in the James Bond movie Skyfall.

The next part of your tour takes you to Glen Coe. This is a special place, a magical place, and visiting Glen Coe with its world famous scenery is a must see highlight of any trip to Scotland. The name Glencoe means the 'Valley of Weeping' and refers to the Massacre of Glen Coe in 1692.
